I see a vision before me, You are calling me to follow
I see a river is forming, You are moving past the shallow
I see the water is rising, higher, wilder, farther it goes
I'll tell you what I see!

God is moving like a river through the nations
And He's coming to a town near You
And He is flowing, outpouring
Like a dam that's going to break through
Water flowing in the desert, in the dry land
In the valley of the shadow
God is singing over dry bones, over dead hearts
And everything will live!

I see the river before me, full of life and full of healing
I see the water is teeming, living water for the thirsty
I want to go where You're going, You are pulling me to go deep
In over my head

G                            A                            E

I hear the deep calling unto deep
I'm diving into Your mystery
Your river, Lord, is my destiny
I'm letting go, let it carry me!
I'm letting go, let it carry me!
